

How little of the population any one instrument can see

The four solid bars nest; the hatched bar does not. The platform figure is the vendor's own unaudited claim, dated differently from the rest, and the two archive and repository counts are different measurements of overlapping populations.